Call to Worship*

To God Be the Glory

William H. Doane, 1875

To God be the glory, great things he hath done! So loved he the world that he gave us his Son, who yielded his life an atonement for sin, and opened the lifegate that all may go in. Praise the Lord, praise the Lord, let the earth hear his voice! Praise the Lord, praise the Lord, let the people rejoice! O come to the Father thru Jesus the Son, and give him the glory, great things he hath done!

For the mountains shall depart

For one small moment have I forsaken thee, but with great mercies will I gather thee, for the mountains shall depart, and the hills be removed, but my kindness shall not depart from thee. For the Lord hath called thee as a woman forsaken, and grieved in spirit, and a wife in youth when thou wast refused, saith thy God.

Ministry of Music

My Father watches over me

Charles Gabriel
(1856-1932)

I trust in God wherever I may be, upon the land, or on the rolling sea, for come what may, from day to day, my heavenly Father watches over me. He makes the rose an object of His care, He guides the eagle through the pathless air, and surely He remembers me; my heavenly Father watches over me. The valley may be dark, the shadows deep, but, oh, the Shepherd guards His lonely sheep; and through the gloom He'll lead me home, my heavenly Father watches over me. I trust in God, I know He cares for me; on mountain bleak or on the stormy sea; though billows roll, He keeps my soul; my heavenly Father watches over me.

William C. Martin

Jeanné Brown, soloist
